

FALSLED INN

FALSLED INN

Falsled Inn - the old royal privileged Restaurant on Assensvejen just south of Svanninge Bakker. Idyllically located just down to the small port in the city Falsled and with great views to some of the small islands of south Funen. This is the place which the beautiful and elegant lighting is designed for.

48 small twinkling pendants, two floating circular rings and 12 crossing arms with small "trumpets" make up the construction. The materials beautifully go together in a combination of brushed stainless steel and polished brass.

Dimension: Outer diameter 4 m

Light sources: 48 small pendant lamps, E14, 230V

Approval: CE-marking

Latest update: 28/02-2025