EGEDAL TOWN HALL, OELSTYKKE, DENMARK

In cooperation with Mangor and Nagel is this custom chandelier made for the new town hall in Egedal. The chandelier is a special version of the Dybbøl luminaire. The counter area is circular, which required a unique chandelier in terms of design and function. In cooperation with Mangor and Nagel the chandelier resulted in a circular form with modern LED lights.

The final solution of the chandelier resulted in much praise, which is highlighted below:

- The chandelier fits with its minimalistic design discreetly and elegantly to the architecture.
- The chandelier has made the daily life for the staff in the service center good.
- The chandelier is beautiful in its simplicity.
