Okholm Lighting, in collaboration with 3XN, has created a grand elliptical LED fixture that appears to float, illuminating the impressive space below. Measuring 9.1 meters in length and 6.3 meters in width, this ellipse is a majestic addition, offering a subtle yet powerful illumination.

Illumination is provided by LED Linear Zeuss at 42.1 W per meter, ensuring crisp, evenly distributed light without overwhelming the surroundings. The ellipse seems almost to have “broken away” from the ceiling, as if hovering between fixed structure and free movement. Its design is so seamlessly integrated overhead that the fixture itself nearly dissolves from view, accentuating the architectural elegance of the space. It stands as a striking example of how technology and aesthetics can converge into a single, captivating form that adds a unique, dynamic atmosphere to the room.
